Project Comments

1. On March 23, 2023, a trading pair was created for the first time on the decentralized trading market Pancakeswap, and from the market trading situation since its launch, although the transaction depth is not large, the transaction is still very active;

- Starting on June 5, all altcoins began to fall off a cliff due to the SEC's lawsuit against Binance and Coinbase; On June 9 DragonKing fell -89%, the lowest price was 0.00000001981; Then the market began to climb and fluctuate, and the current price is 0.00000005308, which has doubled;

In line with Memecoin's hot spot, the price of cryptocurrencies may be affected by macroeconomic activities, regulatory restrictions, supply and demand, investor sentiment or even celebrities, etc., this bullish factor can quickly push the price of tokens up in a short period of time;

- DragonKing Tokenomics: Tokens are only owned by people and have dividends, and the transaction tax is 6%; The trading volume in the past 24 hours reached $691.03K, which is currently a hot project on DEX;

- DragonKing's plan and roadmap: First of all, as a community-driven project, the DragonKing creators gave up the right to contract management, meaning that no one can mint new tokens, increase taxes, blacklist wallets or other contract features that are dangerous for investors and holders, and are governed entirely by community drive; According to the roadmap, the third step goal has been achieved and the next step is to list on the CEX exchange;
